I would like to thank Geoff Ayres for his unstinting support of the walks and for organising the programme each summer, and thank everyone who currently leads a Rudgwick Preservation Society walk:-

Susan Bostock, David Buckley, John Connold, David & Bridget Cozens, Malcolm Francis, Keith Linscott, Steve & Barbara Kenward, Anne-Marie Nash, Eric Slade.

I also wish to thank Dr Leslie Hawkins, Chairman of RPS and the whole committee, for their support. Without them this booklet would not have appeared.

I owe a huge debt to those who know far more than I do about the village and its history, especially

Diana Chatwin, author of Timber-Framed Buildings in the Sussex Weald, The Architectural Heritage of Rudgwick, RPS, 1996, and who kindly corrected some historical errors;

Alan Siney, whose numerous articles in the RPS Newsletter and elsewhere have been an invaluable source, and whose elegant maps will guide us all around the routes of the seven walks.

My thanks go also to

Christine Modlock, Assistant to the Head of Art, Pennthorpe School, for volunteering to produce nearly all the delightful pen and ink sketches.

Simon Nash, for his advice and particularly for his cover designs; Ifold History Society, & the late Peggy Harman (drawing, the barn in Loxwood); The Trustees of Honeywood House Nursing Home (sketch 1898);

Wey and Arun Canal Trust website, www.weyandarun.co.uk for information; (You can support WACT by becoming a member. Pick up a leaflet at the information board behind the Onslow Arms, or look up the website).

About the author:

Roger Nash, was born in Rudgwick (a 'Boxall Babe', at The Ridge in Church Street), and has lived in the village since 1993. Brought up in Loxwood, the Nash family trace their roots in Rowhook to at least the early 19th century. He is an unapologetic enthusiast for maps, for walking, and for the landscape and development of The Weald, and taught geography in Crawley for 22 years.
